Free Choice in Everything

THE TEACHING

“הבחירה ביד האדם לעשות כרצונו”, “free choice is in a person’s hand, to do as he wishes.” Everything is in the hand of a Jew, to conduct all things by his own will and choice (בחירה).

Others have things they are compelled in. But for a Jew, every single thing he does, even travelling somewhere, “יש בו עבודה”, holds service of Hashem; and so he has choice over everything.

MAIN POINTS

- Free choice is in a person’s hands, in everything.
- Israel has choice over every single thing in the world.
- For others, some things are simply compelled (מכרחים).
- For a Jew, every act, even a journey, holds service (עבודה), so he chooses in all of it.

A PRACTICAL TAKEAWAY · OUR OWN REFLECTION

You are never just carried along. Even a trip, a meal or a conversation is a real choice, and a chance to serve Hashem.
