

ספר עמי מענין קבר הבעל-שם-טוב, זכר צדיק

The Resting Place of the Baal Shem Tov

THE TEACHING

Rebbe Nachman told Reb Noson that it is very good to be at the grave of the Baal Shem Tov (קבר הבעל-שם-טוב), of righteous and holy memory, right there at his grave.

MAIN POINTS

- He explained with the verse “צדיקים ירשו ארץ” (תהלים לו:כט), “the righteous shall inherit the land.”
- True tzaddikim (צדיקים אמתיים) inherit the Land of Israel: the place where they are laid to rest is holy “בְּקִדְשֵׁי אֶרֶץ-יִשְׂרָאֵל מִמָּוֶשׁ”, with the actual holiness of the Land of Israel.
- And the Land of Israel is a great repair for the blemish of the covenant (פגם הברית), that is, for failings in personal holiness.
- So being at such a tzaddik's resting place brings that same repair.

A PRACTICAL TAKEAWAY · OUR OWN REFLECTION

Wherever a true tzaddik rests, a piece of the Land of Israel is found, and with it a path back to holiness.
